HOW TO READ THE SIGNALS

GREEN-LEANING

Official terms generally support it, under stated conditions

AMBER

Depends on conditions you must check

RED

Prohibited or high concern — stop

VERIFY

Not yet checked against official text

First-pass signals, not permission. Always confirm the current official terms.

WHAT'S INSIDE

- BEFORE-YOU-BUY PATH
- 15 SCENARIOS

- PLATFORM RULES, QUOTED
- RED FLAGS + WORKSHEETS

How to use this checklist

Use it before you pay for a resell-rights product, and again before you list anything from one. It is a decision aid, not a verdict, and it does not read or interpret your licence for you.

Find the licence text

Get the actual licence (PDF or page) you will receive. Sales-page claims, captions and DMs are not the licence.

2

Name the rights type

Note the exact words the licence uses: PLR, MRR, Resell Rights, Personal Use. Sellers use them inconsistently (page 3).

3

Check the platform

Read the rules of the place you plan to sell. Platform rules apply on top of any licence (page 5).

4

Check what's inside

Canva elements, AI output, stock, music, fonts and logos may carry their own terms (page 6).

5

Decide and record

Use the scenarios, red flags and worksheets, and save check dates. For high stakes, get qualified professional advice.

✓ GREEN-LEANING

Official text supports it in the usual case — only under the stated conditions.

✗ RED

Official text prohibits it, or the risk is high. Don't go ahead as described.

! AMBER

Depends on specific conditions, or the official text is silent. Confirm the named point first.

? VERIFY BEFORE RELYING

Not checked against official text this round. Check the official source yourself.

READ THIS FIRST

This guide is educational. It does not grant any resale, PLR or MRR rights. It is not legal advice, and it is for your personal use only. Rules change: check the current official pages before you rely on them.

Five terms sellers use loosely

PLR, MRR and Resell Rights are not the same thing. These are common trade usages, not official definitions. The licence text you receive decides — not the label on the sales page.

PLR · PRIVATE LABEL RIGHTS

Usually means you may edit the content and put your own name on it. What you may then do — sell it, give it away, pass rights on — varies by licence. Permission to edit or add your name is not the same as owning the copyright: check what the licence actually grants. Gumroad names PLR resale specifically (page 5).

MRR · MASTER RESELL RIGHTS

Usually means you may resell the product and also pass resale rights on to your buyers. Some MRR licences say the product may not be edited, even when the marketing says “rebrand it as your own”. If the sales page and the licence differ, ask the seller in writing before you pay.

RR · RESELL RIGHTS

Usually means you may resell the product as it is, to end users, without passing resale rights on. Price limits, bundling, giveaways and where you may sell are often not stated. If the licence doesn’t say, ask before you assume.

PERSONAL USE

You may use it yourself. No selling, giving away or sharing copies. If a licence does not clearly say what you may do, don’t assume you have more than personal use.

AFFILIATE — A DIFFERENT THING

You promote someone else’s product with a tracked link and earn a commission; the creator makes the sale. You don’t get a copy to sell. Different rules apply (page 7).

Before you buy: seven questions

Answer these before you pay. Any “no” or “don’t know” is your answer for now.

AIs there a written licence?

Can you read the full licence before paying? If not, treat it as RED until you have it in writing.

BWhat does it actually grant?

Which words appear — PLR, MRR, Resell Rights, Personal Use? May you sell, edit, rebrand, give away, pass rights on?

CWhere do the rights come from?

Does the licence say who created the product and who granted the rights? If you can’t trace it, treat it as AMBER.

DWhere will you sell?

Gumroad, Beacons, Etsy or your own site? Check that platform’s rules (page 5). A seller’s licence does not change them.

EWhat’s inside the files?

Canva elements, AI output, stock photos, music, fonts, brand logos? Each may have its own terms (page 6).

FHow is it marketed to you?

Income screenshots, “100% profit”, “buy to unlock your affiliate link”? Read pages 7–8 before paying.

GCan you get your money back?

Read the refund terms before paying. Save the licence, the sales page and the date.

HOW TO READ THE EXITS

No licence (A) or a platform that bans it (D) = RED. Anything unclear in B, C or E = AMBER until answered in writing. Clear on every step = GREEN-LEANING for that platform, on those terms only.

Platform rules, word for word

Quoted from saved copies of each official page. Platform rules sit on top of any licence: a seller's licence does not change them.

GUMROAD · PROHIBITED PRODUCTS AND ACTIVITIES

PLR resale is named. MRR and RR are not.

✗ RED · PLR RESALE · MRR/RR: CHECK

The list includes “reselling private label rights products”. It also lists “services (including, but not limited to, ‘get rich quick’ schemes, business opportunities, investment opportunities...)” and “multi-level marketing or pyramid schemes”. MRR and plain resell rights are not named in the PLR line. Don't assume either way: read the other lines and ask Gumroad.

SOURCE gumroad.com/prohibited · Last revised September 16, 2026

“If you are unsure whether your content is prohibited on Gumroad, please contact us” · the list “may change abruptly and without notice”

BEACONS · COMMUNITY STANDARDS (STORE)

Resale is generally not allowed

✗ RED · PRODUCTS YOU DID NOT CREATE

“In general, we do not allow resale; you cannot sell products you did not create. You can act as an affiliate for other creators on Beacons, but you cannot sell products that aren't your own creation.” Also prohibited: “Multi-level marketing offers, work-at-home scams and make money online opportunities”.

SOURCE beacons.ai//community-standards · Nov 22, 2025

Also listed as high-risk: “Unlicensed proprietary content” and “Multi-level Marketing or Pyramid Schemes”

ETSY · CREATIVITY STANDARDS

Digital downloads must be the seller's own designs

✗ RED · SOMEONE ELSE'S WORK

Items “designed by a seller” “include only” listed types, among them “Digital downloads of sellers' original designs: Original content created by the seller, sold as a digital download.” Listed as not qualifying: “A bundle, collection, scan, or PDF of someone else's work” and “A PDF file of a book that the seller did not personally create or design”.

SOURCE etsy.com/legal/creativity · Last updated on Jun 10, 2025

“Etsy reserves the right to remove listings that do not follow our policies.”

SELLING FROM YOUR OWN WEBSITE

These marketplace lists don't apply there, but the licence and the terms of content inside the pack still do. Your payment provider may have its own rules — VERIFY; not checked in this guide.

Third-party content inside the pack

A resell licence comes from the pack seller. Items inside may be under someone else's terms — check each one.

CANVA LIBRARY CONTENT · CLA §9

⚠️ RED · RESELLING CANVA CONTENT

Canva's Content License Agreement §9 says you "definitely can't" "sub-license, re-sell, rent, lend, assign, gift or otherwise transfer or distribute the Content or the rights granted under this Content License Agreement (subject to section 4A)", or use Content "in a manner that gives the impression that the Content was created by you".

SOURCE Canva Content License Agreement §9

BEFORE BUYING — Ask which Canva items are inside and whether they come as Canva links or as files.

AI-GENERATED CONTENT · PROVIDER TERMS

⚠️ AMBER · CHECK THE PROVIDER TERMS

OpenAI (US Terms of Use): "As between you and OpenAI, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, you (a) retain your ownership rights in Input and (b) own the Output." That wording is between OpenAI and its user and doesn't mention later buyers; "output may not be unique". Anthropic: "Subject to your compliance with our Terms, we assign to you all of our right, title, and interest—if any—in Outputs."

SOURCE OpenAI Terms of Use \(US\) · Anthropic Consumer Terms §4

BEFORE BUYING — Ask which AI tools made it. For copyright in AI output, see Can I Use This?

STOCK PHOTOS · VIDEO · MUSIC · FONTS

⚠️ AMBER · ASK FOR EACH SOURCE

Each comes under a licence from wherever it was obtained. A pack's "resell rights" can't tell you what those licences allow, and "no watermark" is not a licence. Canva's font software may only be used on Canva or inside an exported Canva design (CLA §9A).

SOURCE Canva Content License Agreement §9A

BEFORE BUYING — Ask for a source list. No list? You can't check it.

BRAND LOGOS IN "LUXURY" CLIPS

⚠️ RED · HIGH CONCERN

"Luxury lifestyle" packs often show car badges, watch faces and fashion logos. A pack licence cannot give you those brands' permission. Beacons: "We do not allow the uploading of any content that infringes on copyrights, trademarks, or patents."

SOURCE Beacons Community Standards · Copyrighted content

BEFORE BUYING — Ask to see sample clips. Visible logos are a red flag (page 17).

Promoting is not reselling

Promoting a product with an affiliate link is not the same as reselling it. Both can be restricted, for different reasons.

RESELLING

You list and sell a copy yourself, from your own shop, under a licence from the pack seller. The platform's resale rules apply to your listing (page 5).

PROMOTING AS AN AFFILIATE

! AMBER · DEPENDS WHAT YOU PROMOTE

You share a tracked link; the creator makes the sale and delivers the product. Beacons: "You can act as an affiliate for other creators on Beacons, but you cannot sell products that aren't your own creation." An affiliate link is not a licence to copy or resell the product.

SOURCE Beacons Community Standards · Nov 22, 2025

WHAT'S BEING PROMOTED MATTERS

! AMBER · CHECK THE PLATFORM LISTS

Beacons prohibits "Multi-level marketing offers, work-at-home scams and make money online opportunities". Gumroad prohibits "services (including, but not limited to, 'get rich quick' schemes, business opportunities, investment opportunities...)" and "multi-level marketing or pyramid schemes". If a course is mainly about earning by promoting that same course, read these lines first.

SOURCE Beacons (Nov 22, 2025) · Gumroad (Sep 16, 2026)

QUESTIONS TO ASK BEFORE YOU JOIN

How many commission levels are there — only your own sales, or also sales by people you sign up? Does most of the income described come from promoting this same course, rather than from using what it teaches? Must you buy before you can promote? What are the refund terms?

WHAT THIS PAGE DOES NOT DO

These questions help you decide what to check. They are not a test of whether any programme is legal, multi-level marketing or a pyramid scheme — that is a question for a qualified professional.

Income screenshots, testimonials and disclosure

FTC pages saved 26 Sep 2026. US rules; other countries differ. FTC staff guidance “can’t be definitive”. No income claims; no business model judged.

US FTC · AFFILIATE DISCLOSURE

! AMBER · DISCLOSE CLEARLY

Affiliates “should disclose your relationship to the retailer clearly and conspicuously”. “The closer the disclosure is to your recommendation, the better.” In a post’s comments it is “easily avoidable and thus not clear and conspicuous”.

SOURCE FTC, Endorsement Guides: What People Are Asking (June 2023)

BEFORE POSTING — A video description alone is “not enough on its own”; a hyperlinked disclosure is “easily avoidable”.

US FTC · FAKE OR FALSE TESTIMONIALS

✗ RED · FAKE OR FALSE

The rule “went into effect on October 21, 2024” and “authorizes courts to impose civil penalties for knowing violations”. A business that puts testimonials on its own website “is disseminating them”: “If those testimonials are fake or false, the business could be liable.”

SOURCE FTC, Consumer Reviews and Testimonials Rule: Q&A (November 2024)

BEFORE POSTING — Never present a seller’s testimonials or results as your own customers’.

US FTC · EARNINGS & RESULTS CLAIMS

? VERIFY · RULE STATUS

On January 13, 2025 the FTC proposed an Earnings Claim Rule and Business Opportunity Rule changes, noting “deceptive earnings claims are already illegal”. Endorsed results usually read as what “others can also expect”.

SOURCE FTC press release (Jan 13, 2025) · Endorsement Guides Q&A (June 2023)

VERIFY BEFORE RELYING — proposed in January 2025; check its current status.

PLATFORM RULES · INCOME SCREENSHOTS

Someone else’s results are not your results

Gumroad’s list includes “deceptive marketing practices”. Beacons’ Email Marketing guidelines, under Prohibited Actions, bar including in your “Campaigns, Websites, Ads, or account or sell in your Store any material that wasn’t created by you, provided for you to use, or that would violate anyone’s rights”. Note the “provided for you to use” wording: check what the seller gave you in writing.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

✕ Rebrand a PLR ebook and sell it on Gumroad

✕ RED ON GUMROAD

WHY Gumroad's list includes "reselling private label rights products". A new cover and title don't tell you it has stopped being a PLR product.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence allows editing, rebranding and selling?
- ☐ How much is still the original PLR text?
- ☐ Unsure? Ask support@gumroad.com before listing
- ☐ Canva, AI or stock content inside (page 6)?
- ☐ Licence and check date saved (page 19)

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS Gumroad changing its list, or confirming your version in writing. A product you wrote yourself is a different case (scenario 5).

✕ List an MRR course on Beacons

✕ RED ON BEACONS

WHY Beacons: "In general, we do not allow resale; you cannot sell products you did not create." A course you bought is not one you created.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Did you create any of it yourself?
- ☐ Is it pitched as a way to make money online?
- ☐ Other people's videos, music or clips inside?
- ☐ Is the creator on Beacons with an affiliate option?
- ☐ Rule and check date saved (page 20)

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS Beacons changing its Store rules. Promoting the creator's own listing as an affiliate is a different route (scenario 8).

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

✕ Sell a PLR planner on Etsy

✕ RED ON ETSY AS-IS

WHY Etsy digital downloads must be “sellers’ original designs”; “A bundle, collection, scan, or PDF of someone else’s work” does not qualify.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Is the design yours, or the PLR author’s?
- ☐ Would your changes make it your own design?
- ☐ Canva template or elements inside (page 6)?
- ☐ AI used? Disclose it in the listing description
- ☐ Does the licence allow resale at all?

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS Designing your own planner, using the PLR only as research, moves this toward scenario 5 — then check Etsy’s rules again.

! Sell a PLR or MRR pack on your own website

! AMBER · LICENCE + CONTENTS DECIDE

WHY No marketplace list applies, but the licence still sets what you may do, and items inside the pack keep their own terms.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence allows selling from your own site?
- ☐ Any price, bundle or territory limits?
- ☐ Canva, AI, stock, music or fonts inside?
- ☐ Payment provider rules — VERIFY, not checked here
- ☐ Refund and delivery terms you’ll give buyers

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING if the licence clearly allows it and every asset inside is cleared. RED if the licence is personal use only or missing.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

Use a PLR pack to learn, then write your own

GREEN-LEANING

WHY Reading it for your own learning is personal use. A product you then write yourself, from your own knowledge, is not a copy of the pack.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence allows at least personal use?
- ☐ Written from scratch, not paraphrased line by line?
- ☐ No images, templates or files copied over
- ☐ Your own examples, structure and title
- ☐ Your platform's rules still apply to your product

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS AMBER if your version follows the pack closely in structure or wording — that is scenario 6.

Heavily rewrite PLR text and sell it

AMBER · LICENCE + PLATFORM DECIDE

WHY PLR licences often allow editing, but none of the platform rules quoted here say how much rewriting makes a PLR product your own.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence allows selling an edited version?
- ☐ Any licence rule on names, credits or changes?
- ☐ Gumroad: still a PLR product? Ask if unsure
- ☐ Etsy: is it now your original design?
- ☐ Keep drafts that show your own work

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING if it becomes genuinely your own writing (scenario 5). RED where the platform treats it as PLR resale.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

! Give a PLR pack away as a lead magnet

! AMBER · FREE IS STILL DISTRIBUTION

WHY Giving copies away still distributes them. Some licences allow giveaways; others don't mention them — and silence is not permission.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence mentions free giveaways?
- ☐ Allowed in exchange for an email address?
- ☐ Gumroad $0 listing: still “reselling”? Ask
- ☐ Third-party content inside (page 6)?
- ☐ Your name or brand on it — allowed?

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING if the licence expressly allows free giveaways and the delivery platform allows it. RED if the licence is personal use only.

! Promote the original course as an affiliate on Beacons

! AMBER · DEPENDS WHAT IT OFFERS

WHY Beacons lets you “act as an affiliate for other creators on Beacons”, but prohibits “Multi-level marketing offers, work-at-home scams and make money online opportunities”.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Creator on Beacons with an official affiliate link?
- ☐ Is the course mainly about earning by promoting it?
- ☐ How many commission levels are there?
- ☐ Must you buy before you can promote?
- ☐ Commission disclosed clearly, next to the link?

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING for an ordinary product, clearly disclosed. RED if the offer falls in Beacons' prohibited list.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

✕ Reuse the seller's income screenshots

✕ RED · HIGH CONCERN

WHY They show someone else's results, not yours or what a buyer can expect. Gumroad lists "deceptive marketing practices"; FTC staff say results claims usually read as what "others can also expect".

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Provided for you to use, in writing?
- ☐ Would viewers think they're your results?
- ☐ Can you prove every figure you show?
- ☐ Are typical results stated?
- ☐ FTC testimonial and results points (page 8)?

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS Use no income figures. If you must, show only your own verifiable records, after checking page 8 (FTC earnings-rule status: VERIFY).

✕ A Canva template pack with "full resell rights"

✕ RED · STRICTER READING

WHY Canva's licence is "non-transferable (subject to section 4A below)", and CLA §9 bars you from "sub-license, re-sell ... or otherwise transfer or distribute the Content". A pack's "full resell rights" can't add to that.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Canva library template, or seller's own design?
- ☐ Any Pro (crown) elements inside?
- ☐ Delivered as a Canva link or as files?
- ☐ Can elements be extracted as files?
- ☐ See Can I Sell This? for Canva detail

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS AMBER if the pack holds only the seller's own designs with no Canva library Content — then check Can I Sell This? first.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

! An AI-generated pack with resell rights

! AMBER · ASK WHO MADE IT, AND HOW

WHY OpenAI's ownership clause begins "As between you and OpenAI" — wording between OpenAI and whoever generated it, silent on later buyers — and says "output may not be unique".

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Which AI tools and plans made it?
- ☐ Did the seller check those providers' terms?
- ☐ Could others have near-identical output?
- ☐ Real brands, people or characters in it?
- ☐ Etsy: disclose AI; "AI prompt bundles" don't qualify

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING if the seller names the tools, their terms fit and the licence is clear. RED if it contains logos, characters or real likenesses.

✕ A "luxury lifestyle" clip vault with brand logos

✕ RED · HIGH CONCERN

WHY Car badges, watch faces and fashion logos are other companies' trademarks, and each clip was filmed by someone. A pack licence can't grant brand permission, or filmmaker rights the seller doesn't hold.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Who filmed each clip? Is there a source list?
- ☐ Does each clip's licence allow resale?
- ☐ Visible logos, products or recognisable people?
- ☐ Is the music in the clips licensed?
- ☐ "No watermark" is not a licence

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS AMBER only if every clip has a documented licence allowing redistribution and no brand marks are visible.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

! Add resell products as a bonus

! AMBER · A BONUS IS STILL DISTRIBUTION

WHY A “free bonus” still hands buyers a copy. The licence must allow bundling, and your platform may treat the bonus as part of what you sell.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence allows bundling or bonuses?
- ☐ Any minimum-price or “never free” rule?
- ☐ Would the bonus be banned alone on this platform?
- ☐ Contents inside cleared (page 6)?
- ☐ Bonus “value” used as a sales claim?

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING if the licence expressly allows bonuses and the item would be allowed on its own. RED on a platform that bans it.

✕ Sell “master resell rights” so buyers can resell

✕ RED · HIGHEST FRICTION

WHY You would pass rights on, so every gap in the chain reaches your buyers too. Beacons: “In general, we do not allow resale”; Gumroad doesn’t name MRR — check its PLR and business-opportunity lines.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Licence lets you grant MRR to others?
- ☐ Rights traceable back to the creator?
- ☐ Which platform — does it allow this at all?
- ☐ Marketed as an income opportunity?
- ☐ Can you answer your buyers’ licence questions?

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS A written licence expressly allowing onward MRR, cleared contents and a platform that allows it could move this to AMBER. Never assume it.

Real-world resell scenarios

First-pass signals, not permission. Check the licence you actually received.

! Print a pack's designs on mugs or T-shirts (print-on-demand)

! AMBER · CHECK PHYSICAL-PRODUCT RIGHTS

THE SITUATION. You bought a template or graphics pack with “resell rights” and want to print its designs on mugs, T-shirts or posters through a print-on-demand service.

WHY A licence to resell a digital pack does not automatically cover physical products. Etsy's production-partner category covers “Original designs created by a seller” — a design from someone else's pack is not yours.

WHAT TO CHECK

- ☐ Does the licence name physical products or print-on-demand?
- ☐ Any limit on quantity, print runs or product types?
- ☐ Canva, stock photo, font or AI content inside (page 6)?
- ☐ Are other buyers printing the same design?
- Etsy: “Sellers must disclose that
- ☐ an item is made by a production partner”

WATCH OUT FOR

“Resell rights” on a digital pack often means reselling the files, not turning them into merchandise.

If the pack uses Canva library content, the pack seller's Canva licence does not pass to you (page 6).

BEFORE YOU PUBLISH

- 1 Find the words “physical products” or “print-on-demand” in the licence, or ask the seller in writing.
- 2 Check the rules of the print-on-demand service and the marketplace you will sell on.
- 3 Save the licence and the seller's reply with today's date (page 19).

WHAT COULD CHANGE THIS GREEN-LEANING if the licence expressly allows print-on-demand and the contents are cleared. RED if it is personal use only, or has brand logos or characters.

Red flags before you buy

Any one of these: stop, and get answers in writing before you pay or list.

- ✗ No licence text before you pay — only a sales page, caption or DM.
- ✗ The sales page says “rebrand it as your own” but the licence says no edits (or the reverse).
- ✗ The seller can’t say who created the product or where their rights come from.
- ✗ It is marketed with “100% profit” claims or income screenshots.
- ✗ You must buy before you can promote or earn.
- ✗ Most of the income described comes from selling the same course to the next buyer.
- ✗ Commissions on sales made by people you sign up (more than one level).
- ✗ “Luxury” clips with visible car, watch or fashion logos.
- ✗ Music, stock footage or fonts with no named source or licence.
- ✗ Canva templates sold with “full resell rights”.
- ✗ “No watermark” offered as proof you can use it.
- ✗ You’re told to sell on Gumroad, Beacons or Etsy with no mention of their rules.
- ✗ No refund terms, or refunds only if you “take action” first.
- ✗ Pressure: countdown timers, “last spots”, DM-only pricing.

WHAT A RED FLAG MEANS

A red flag doesn’t prove anything is illegal or that any seller acted wrongly. It means you don’t yet have enough to decide.

Before-you-list checklist

Run this before every listing, including free ones.

☐ I have the full licence text saved, with the date I received it.

☐ The licence clearly allows what I plan to do: sell, edit, rebrand, give away or pass rights on.

☐ The licence matches what the sales page promised — or I asked the seller in writing.

☐ I can trace who created the product.

☐ I checked my platform's current rules and saved the page date (page 5).

☐ Gumroad: I read the PLR and business-opportunity lines, and asked support if unsure.

☐ Beacons: I created this myself — or I'm promoting as an affiliate, not reselling.

☐ Etsy: the design is my own original work, and any AI use is disclosed in the listing.

☐ I know every Canva, AI, stock, music and font asset inside, and its terms.

☐ No brand logos, recognisable people or characters I don't have rights to.

☐ No income figures or screenshots I can't prove from my own records.

☐ Any affiliate relationship is disclosed clearly and conspicuously, near the link — not only in comments or behind a hyperlink.

☐ My listing tells buyers exactly what rights they get — and don't get.

☐ I filled in the worksheets (pages 19–20).
